BENEFITS

Powerful Performance

Two powerful, independently controlled stainless steel burners ensure a superior performance. BUGG's high performance Quartz Start Ignition is designed to fire up first time, every time.

Versatile Cooking

Barbecue your way with the hood up or down. A must for those who love to entertain. The spring-assist hood lowers gently for smooth operation. Plus, an integrated thermometer comes standard. With a large versatile plate grill rust resistant enamelled cast iron cooking surface you can easily accommodate larger gatherings too.

Heat Control Without Flare-Ups

Dual temperature control ensures even heat without flare-ups, while the integrated thermometer ensures excellent results. The spring-assist hood lowers gently for smooth operation. Whether you're hosting an intimate gathering or a big occasion.

Extra Large Cooking Surface

A must for those who love to entertain. The extra large and versatile grill plate made of rust resistant enamelled cast iron doubles your cooking choices. With a large versatile cooking surface you can easily accommodate larger gatherings too.

Great Storage for Condiments

Enjoy efficient storage and easy access for all of your meals with a large tray for all your favourite BBQ condiments. Side trays lock in for extra preparation space and then simply store away.

On The Roll

Easy to move, the smart wheel balance mechanism ensures extra stability. Set up anywhere from the balcony and patio to the outdoor entertaining area and backyard.

Your BUGG, Your Way

Customise your BUGG with our range of functional accessories including covers, tools and pizza stone set.

BIGG BUGG Hotplate Accessory

Custom designed to fit your BIGG BUGG, this cast iron hotplate utilises ventilation points around the plate to ensure even heat distribution, whilst giving you the versatility to grill large quantities of food quickly. Great for cooking burgers, eggs, pancakes and fried onions. This accessory is sold separately.
